

Theme of the Day

Not all our stories are the same, yet we are all called to respond with patience. Patience is a key virtue that we must work to develop. Our cultivation of it pleases God, who is patient with us. Showing patience positively affects our relationships and brings great joy to our lives and community. If we trust God and have a passion to treat others the way He treats us, we will learn more each day how to be slow to anger and tolerate the unavoidable pressure of life.

Key Idea: I am slow to anger and endure patiently under the unavoidable pressures of life.

ZION GAAT KID'S AFRICAN MISSION

The tubs on the north wall of our East Entry have been filling up with wonderful contributions. We thank you for being so careful with the articles you are placing in them. We will be continuing this collection until our container at Orphan Grain Train in Norfolk, NE heads to Gambella.

Chad and Mary Ann Zinnel have been taking a lot of items to the OGT when they go to Norfolk to visit relatives. We really appreciate their help.

Thought it might interest you that Mary Ann's brother drew the locomotives on the OGT sign that hangs in our entry way. He did this when he was young and now he is an adult. Mary Ann's folks were involved with the forming of the Orphan Grain Train. They told us that Johnny Cash was there for the first fund raiser. We have received several monetary contributions and are very thankful for them.

We are looking forward to having the container at OGT start its 3 month trip to Gambella, Ethiopia in the near future. Several of us plan to go to Norfolk for the send off of the container.

We are so grateful and thankful for all that is being done for our Ministry.

A LADIES WINTER COAT was taken by mistake from the Stene Funeral on March 16. If you were in attendance that day, please check your coat to be sure that you have the right one. There's a pair of gloves in the pockets that say "Alaska" on them. If you have the wrong coat, the correct one is hanging in the closet at the back of the church. Thank you!
