

SUNDAY BULLETIN

January 13, 2019

Theme of the Day

The story of Joseph is a story that struggles at the intersection of real life and real faith. It tells us that life must be lived at great risk, in the face of deceit, temptation, and seduction. Life must be lived in the midst of power and injustice. We are both children of God and children of the world and it is often tempting to choose one at the expense of the other. Life can be unfair, but through it all God is there – with us, Emmanuel! May we be the kind of people who fully rely on God and fully engage the human experience. And as people of faith, followers of Jesus who trust that through death comes resurrection, may we experience a hope like the hope Joseph had . . . a hope that will carry us through any suffering and injustice that we must confront in our world.

You are invited to update your photo if you'd like (maybe you didn't like your picture or your family dynamics have changed). Be watching for more information as we move into February and March. Everyone pictured in the directory will receive a NEW FREE Directory.

FAMILIES IN FAITH

January Event

Brown Bags and Board Games

Friday, January 18 - 6:00 pm

Bring your family their own brown bag dinner-make it at home, pick it from a store or food establishment of your choice ... it is up to you. Bring your family's favorite board games to either play together or share with others. We will begin playing games at 6:30! Hope to see you then!

THE FLOWERS on the Altar this morning are given by Odd and Sunhild Muldbakken in honor of their 60th Wedding Anniversary that they celebrated on January 3. We congratulate Odd and Sunhild on their milestone anniversary and thank them for providing the flowers for our services today.

BEING BAPTIZED during our 10:30 Service today are Connor LaVern and Adalynn Cynthia, infant twins of Sam and Kenzie Yost. We pray God's Blessings upon Connor and Adalynn and their family.

WE EXTEND OUR CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY to Jacob and Chez Shoup and family at the passing of Chez's grandmother, Evelyn Saunders. Funeral services took place yesterday in Iowa. May God grant this family His peace during their time of sadness.

THANK YOU to our Zion family for the care, concern, cards and memorials following the death of my brother, Wendell Lovaas. Also a big thank you to the Love Kitchen for the meal that was provided. A special thank you to Pastor Greg for his words of encouragement. We are truly blessed to be a part of Zion. ~ Brian and Janice Haas

THANK YOU: I would like to thank you for all the prayers and cards, visits and phone calls as I recover from surgery. A Special Thank You to Pastor Greg - Audrey Hein and Lori Brunick. Blessings to all! ~ Max Kirlin

MANY THANKS to all who decorated the church for the Christmas season, (willing hands make light the work). Also, thank you for the help in taking down the decorations and putting them away. God's blessing! ~ Donna Crichton

A SPECIAL VOTERS' MEETING will be held on Sunday, February 3 at 9:15 am in the Atrium. The purpose of this important meeting will be to determine if Zion Lutheran will move toward Calling another Pastor from the field OR if we should apply for a Candidate from the Seminary. On Sunday, January 27 we will have an informational meeting at 9:15 am to explain both options. This will give you an opportunity to ask questions and then to prayerfully consider how you will vote on February 3.
