

SUNDAY BULLETIN

January 20, 2019

Theme of the Day

Joseph was not your average Joe. In 13 years he went from a slave and a prisoner to being the second in command of Egypt. But when he reached the top, he still felt deeply about his family and his fame. He was able to recognize the God who would help him forget the troubles and trials of his past, so he could fully do the work that God had given him to do, to save lives. And he has a sense of thankfulness as well. His journey had not been perfect, but God enabled him to not just survive, but also thrive in Egypt. Perhaps your prayer today can be the words of Joseph ... “God, thank you for the ability to forgive, even when it’s hard to forget. And help me get on with the good work in my life you have in store for me.” Or, “Thank you, God, that I don’t have to simply survive this life, even when I face difficulty, but I can, like Joseph, thrive in it as well.”

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

Wednesday - 4:30 pm
Parish Nurse's Office (Assistant Pastor's)

Dealing with the loss of a loved one is especially difficult. It can be a hard and lonely journey. Whether your loss has been recent or not so recent, you are invited to attend this support group to get to know each other and attend to our sense of loss. Come and share insights as well as the upheaval grief can cause. If you have any questions please contact either our Parish Nurse, Rachel Aamold (695-2452) or the church office (338-5226).

WE CONGRATULATE Arden Waag and Linda Rykhus who were married here yesterday. May God bless Arden and Linda, bless their marriage and bless their home. We also thank Arden and Linda for providing the flowers for our services today.

THANK YOU to everyone who helped out at The Banquet last Monday morning. Your dedication and help with this mission outreach is so appreciated. We would not be able to do this without your help. Mark your calendars for Monday, April 15 - our next opportunity to serve breakfast at The Banquet.

~ Evie Meier

A SPECIAL VOTERS' MEETING will be held on Sunday, February 3 at 9:15 am in the Atrium. The purpose of this important meeting will be to determine if Zion Lutheran will move toward Calling another Pastor from the field OR if we should apply for a Candidate from the Seminary. NEXT SUNDAY we will have an informational meeting at 9:15 am to explain both options. This will give you an opportunity to ask questions and then to prayerfully consider how you will vote on February 3.

MIDDLE SCHOOL JUMP NIGHT
