

SUNDAY BULLETIN

February 10, 2019

Theme of the Day

For the Christian, there is no thought more comforting than the eternity of God and His changelessness. It assures us that His purposes for us will be fulfilled. The God who came down to deliver His people from Egypt in the person of Moses (Exodus 3) has now come down in the person of His Son, Jesus Christ, to deliver us from eternal damnation due to our sins. Just as the fire of God burned the bush but did not consume it, so the wrath of God was poured out on the Lord Jesus Christ, but did not consume Him. He died for our sins, but He was raised from the dead. Through Him, humanity can be delivered from the wrath of God on sinners. What a blessed hope there is for those who trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, the "I AM" God, who came that we might live through Him.
