

Theme of the Day

Moses went back to the Pharaoh, and passed the message from God to him, asking him to allow the Israelites to go. Moses had also told the Pharaoh that if he were to disobey he would send pestilence upon the land of Egypt. God also warned the Pharaoh that he would kill his firstborn son if he refused to listen. The Pharaoh did not allow them to go, and in fact, he made the yoke on the people heavier, by not providing the slaves with straw, and yet demanded the same quota of bricks. It was then that the Israelites started to doubt God and became faithless. God sent Moses and Aaron to deliver the message to Pharaoh once again, this time, Aaron's Rod became a serpent, and while the servants of the Pharaoh could do the same, Aaron's Rod eventually ate up the rods of the servants of the Pharaoh. However, the Pharaoh still refused to listen. Hence God began sending the Plagues onto Egypt. In the following order ... 1. Water into Blood; 2. Frogs; 3. Lice; 4. Flies; 5. Diseased Livestock; 6. Boils; 7. Hail; 8. Locust; 9. Darkness; 10. Death of Firstborn. Finally the Pharaoh relented and allowed the people to leave Egypt.
