

Theme of the Day

God pours out His healing love for me by cleansing me through water and the Word, giving me life and salvation. When I suffer, my first inclination is to trust my strength, wealth, or reputation. This tempts me to doubt God's unequivocal word of promise. But, despite my doubts, God's Word is powerful and always does what it says, pointing me to Jesus, the Word made flesh, who heals my diseases and cleanses me from the sickness of my sin granting forgiveness and eternal salvation for the sake of Jesus, who died and rose again for us. On Pentecost, Christians commemorate the special outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit's activity continues today. Through the preaching of the Gospel and Baptism, the Holy Spirit calls and gathers believers to Christ and His Church. The Spirit works among people of every nation and language—among all to whom the Church is sent to proclaim the Gospel. For this reason, Christians pray for the continued outpouring of the Spirit and for the fulfillment of His sanctifying work. May your eyes be opened and your heart be filled as you celebrate the ever-present Spirit of God this week, and as you receive the empowerment of God for the journey ahead.
